Consideration has been given your request for the issuance of a certificate of correction, for the above-identified patent under the provision of Rule 1.322 or 1.323.

Respecting the alleged error, the change to column 6 is not approved, since the specification of the application shows a division (\div) sign, and changing this to a negative sign (-) would introduce new matter. Therefore, no correction(s) is in order here under United States Codes (U.S.C.) 254 or 255 the Code of Federal Regulation (C.F.R.) R 1.322 or R 1.323.

In view of the foregoing, your request in this matter is hereby denied.
